This Week at NUSA

This has been my first week as Headteacher at NUSA, and what a week it has been! A heartfelt and genuine thank you to all staff, students and the wider community for the welcome that I have received. I look forward to leading assemblies next week with each year group so that I can more properly introduce myself to the students.

These are open to any parent/carer who may want to discuss their child's SEND needs further or parents/carers who have concerns that their children may have SEND needs that are yet to be diagnosed. If you wish to book an appointment in one of the slots below, please contact reception.
